How often can I use the services?

Depending on the services offered, we distinguish between two different usage options:

Once per day – The service can be used once per day during your stay.

Once per week – If you are on vacation for longer than one week with the KÖNIGS CARD CARD, this service can be used a second time from the 8th night onwards, a third time from the 15th night onwards, and so on.

Please note:

After using a mountain railway, the next mountain railway can only be used on the following day. However, it is possible to combine mountain railways, boat trips, and swimming on the same day, for example.

This rule applies to mountain railways, boat trips, swimming pools, and wellness facilities.

Dates and options for use can be found under the respective service. Some services can only be used once a week, e.g., e-bike rental.

Allgäu

Allgäu

All of Bavaria's impressive royal castles – whether fairytale-like Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau or fortress-like Falkenstein, Freyberg, and Eisenberg – are located in the Ostallgäu region, the part of the Allgäu where the KÖNIGSCARD is at home.

It stretches from the rolling hills of the Alpine foothills to panoramic views of the Zugspitze and the sparkling lake landscape. The hiking and cycling region connects Lake Constance and Königssee.

WHERE CASTLES GROW ON MOUNTAINS – THAT'S THE ALLGÄU

Free travel by bus and train

If you are spending your vacation in an Allgäu-mobil community*, you can use your guest card to travel free of charge by bus and train in Ostallgäu and Upper Bavaria.

Your KÖNIGSCARD, together with photo ID and a section of your registration form, serves as your ticket.

You can find out which bus and train routes can be used free of charge at www.allgaeu-mobil.de or in the Allgäumobil timetable booklet, which you can obtain from the local tourist information office.

Allgäu

Tyrol

Coming from Vorarlberg, "Licca – the Fast One" flows between the Allgäu and Lechtal Alps through Tyrol. Later referred to as "the Stony One," it shapes one of the most natural and unspoiled river regions in Central Europe.

The wide and gravelly wild river landscape, with its certified hiking trail, forms a link between Arlberg and Allgäu. It is a natural gem that is well protected by the Reutte Nature Park region. The Lech River and its floodplain forests represent a last refuge for many plant and animal species, including botanical and zoological rarities.

The district capital of Reutte and the region were protected centuries ago: their castles are still visible from afar today.

Upper Bavaria

Ammergau Alps

The Ammergau Alps, with the famous towns of Oberammergau, Unterammergau, Bad Kohlgrub, and Ettal Abbey, nestle against the Allgäu in the east and mark the beginning of the Upper Bavarian Alpine foothills. The highlight of this region is the unsurpassed Zugspitze with the Wetterstein Mountains.

Pfaffenwinkel

Between Lech and Loisach, with lush green meadows, dense forests, untouched moors, picture-perfect lakes, and idyllic river landscapes, the beauty of southern Bavaria is on display in the Pfaffenwinkel region. The name lives up to its promise: there is hardly any other region with such a high concentration of monasteries and Baroque churches as here. The Wieskirche in Steingaden is even a World Heritage Site.

Tölzer Land

Bright yellow dandelion meadows against snow-capped peaks, crystal-clear streams and deep blue lakes, interspersed with magnificent farms and small villages with striking onion domes rising into the white-blue sky: the Tölzer Land, which begins south of Munich on Lake Starnberg and extends to the Tyrolean border, captivates visitors with its authentic Bavarian picture-book idyll.

In the BADEHAUS in Waldram (formerly Föhrenwald), history can be experienced in fast motion: from 1940 onwards, the National Socialists built a model settlement for armaments workers in the Wolfratshausen forest. Towards the end of the war, the concentration camp death march passed through here. Föhrenwald then became a camp for Jewish displaced persons who had survived the Holocaust. From 1956 onwards, mostly Catholic, large families of displaced persons were settled here and the place was renamed Waldram. Traces of this unique migration history can still be found here today. It is vividly recounted using multimedia in the newly built BADEHAUS memorial site. A citizens' initiative saved the building from demolition and turned it into a place of remembrance, encounter, and learning.
